

Free!

Grades 4-7

Elements of Fiction Story Blueprint

- Print and use with ANY narrative text
- Promotes active, engaged reading skills
- Encourages use of text-based responses

CCSS-Aligned

Name: _____

Period: _____

Title: _____

Mini Summary:

Author: _____

Genre: _____

1 Character

Check all boxes that apply:

- Protagonist
- Antagonist
- Static Character
- Dynamic Character
- Major Character
- Minor Character
- Flat Character
- Round Character

Include a quote that describes this character.

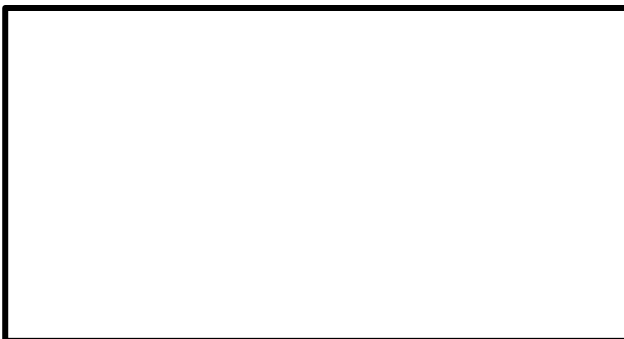

What does this quote tell the reader about this character?

2 Setting

Where: _____

When: _____

Draw a picture of how you imagine the setting of this story to appear.

Include a quote from this story that describes the setting of the text.

3 P.O.V.

Pronouns used:

- I, me, we, us

Yes

Is a character from the text narrating this story?

Yes

First Person

Pronouns used:

- he, she, they

Yes

Do you know what any characters are thinking?

Yes

No

Third Objective

Do you know what many of the story's characters are thinking?

Yes

No

Third Person Omniscient

Third Person Limited

Include a quote from this story's narrator. Highlight the pronouns in this quote:

4 Conflict

Check all boxes that apply:

- Character v. Character
- Character v. Self
- Character v. Nature
- Character v. Society

_____ vs. _____
Protagonist Antagonist

Provide a quote that illustrates the conflict from this story:

5 Theme

Identify a major literary topic from this story.
(Friendship, Love, Growing Up, Etc.)

Identify a major lesson that the protagonist learns in this story:

Explain how this lesson might apply to the lives of everyday readers:

6 Plot

Climax

Use the plot diagram to identify key events in the story:

Rising Action

Falling Action

Exposition

Resolution

